27 Defendant. ) 28 )

1. This constitutes the plea agreement between ALEXANDER
2. GERWER ("defendant") and the United States Attorney's Office for
3. the Central District of California ("the USAO") in the above-
4. captioned case. This agreement is limited to the USAO and cannot
5. bind any other federal, state or local prosecuting,
6. administrative or regulatory authorities.

7 PLEA

8 2. Defendant gives up the right to indictment by a grand 9 jury and agrees to plead guilty to a ONE-count information in the 10 form attached to this agreement or a substantially similar form.

NATURE OF THE OFFENSE

2       3. In order for defendant to be guilty of count ONE,
3 which charges a violation of Title 18, United States Code, 4 Section 844(e), the following must be true: (1) defendant made, 5 or caused to be made, a threat to kill, injure or intimidate any 6 individual or unlawfully damage or destroy a building by means of 7 fire or an explosive; (2) defendant used, or caused to be used, 8 an instrument of commerce, such as a the mail or telephone to 9 communicate the threat; and (3) defendant acted knowingly and 10 willfully. Defendant admits that defendant is, in fact, guilty 11 of this offense as described in count ONE of the information.

PENALTIES

13       4. The statutory maximum sentence that the Court can impose 14 for a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 844(e) 15 is: 10 years imprisonment; a three-year period of supervised 16 release; a fine of $250,000 or twice the gross gain or gross loss 17 resulting from the offense, whichever is greatest; and a 18 mandatory special assessment of $100.

19       5. Supervised release is a period of time following 20 imprisonment during which defendant will be subject to various 21 restrictions and requirements. Defendant understands that if 22 defendant violates one or more of the conditions of any 23 supervised release imposed, defendant may be returned to prison 24 for all or part of the term of supervised release, which could 25 result in defendant serving a total term of imprisonment greater 26 than the statutory maximum stated above.

6. Defendant also understands that, by pleading guilty, defendant may be giving up valuable government benefits and valuable civic rights, such as the right to vote, the right to possess a firearm, the right to hold office, and the right to serve on a jury.

6       7. Defendant further understands that the conviction in 7 this case may subject defendant to various collateral 8 consequences, including but not limited to, deportation, 9 revocation of probation, parole, or supervised release in another 10 case, and suspension or revocation of a professional license.
11 Defendant understands that unanticipated collateral consequences 12 will not serve as grounds to withdraw defendant's guilty plea.

FACTUAL BASIS

14 8. Defendant and the USAO agree and stipulate to the 15 statement of facts provided below. This statement of facts 16 includes facts sufficient to support a plea (or pleas) of guilty 17 to the charges described in this agreement and to establish the 18 sentencing guideline factors set forth in paragraph 11 below. It 19 is not meant to be a complete recitation of all facts relevant to 20 the underlying criminal conduct or all facts known to defendant 21 that relate to that conduct.

22 On February 6, 2006, Alexander Gerwer called 23 ClientLogic, a company that is contracted to service 24 Chase Manhattan credit card accounts, in Norman, 25 Oklahoma. During that phone call, Gerwer asked the 26 customer service representative and her supervisor for

1 a woman named "Naurine Faraurte." When Gerwer was told 2 that Gerwer could not be transferred to a specific 3 person and that they did not know a "Naurine Faraurte," 4 Gerwer became upset, said that he was with the FBI, and 5 told the customer service representatives that he 6 needed to be transferred or else a bomb was going to go 7 off.

8 9 The call center captured the caller ID information from 10 the call. Call records for Gerwer indicate that he 11 called the call center from his cell phone at the time 12 ClientLogic indicated that it received the calls.
13 Gerwer's phone records indicate an incoming call that 14 was received but not answered during the time of the 15 call with Clientlogic. Once the "threat" phone call 16 was terminated, the records indicated voicemail was 17 immediately checked suggesting that the phone was not 18 lost or stolen.

19
20 Gerwer made, and caused to be made a threat to injure 21 or intimidate or unlawfully damage or destroy a 22 building by means of an explosive. Defendant in making 23 this threat used an instrument of commerce, namely, the 24 telephone to communicate the threat and defendant acted 25 knowingly and willfully.

WAIVER OF CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS

2        9. By pleading guilty, defendant gives up the following 3 rights:

- a) The right to persist in a plea of not guilty.
- b) The right to a speedy and public trial by jury.
- c) The right to the assistance of legal counsel at cluding the right to have the Court appoint counsel for for the purpose of representation at trial. (In this defendant understands that, despite his or her plea of not guilty, he or she retains the right to be represented by counsel necessary, to have the court appoint counsel if he or she cannot afford counsel - at every other stage of the trial.)
- d) The right to be presumed innocent and to have the burden of proof placed on the government to prove defendant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
- e) The right to confront and cross-examine witnesses against defendant.
- f) The right, if defendant wished, to testify on defendant's own behalf and present evidence in opposition to the prosecution, including the right to call witnesses and to subpoena witnesses to testify.
- g) The right not to be compelled to testify, and, if defendant chose not to testify or present evidence, to have that fact be used against defendant.

By pleading guilty, defendant also gives up any and all

1 rights to pursue any affirmative defenses, Fourth Amendment or 2 Fifth Amendment claims, and other pretrial motions that have been 3 filed or could be filed.

4 SENTENCING FACTORS

5 10. Defendant understands that the Court is required to 6 consider the United States Sentencing Guidelines ("U.S.S.G." or 7 "Sentencing Guidelines") among other factors in determining 8 defendant's sentence. Defendant understands, however, that the 9 Sentencing Guidelines are only advisory, and that after 10 considering the Sentencing Guidelines, the Court may be free to 11 exercise its discretion to impose any reasonable sentence up to 12 the maximum set by statute for the crimes of conviction.

13 11. Defendant and the USAO agree and stipulate to the 14 following applicable sentencing guideline factors:

15 Base Offense Level : 12 U.S.S.G. §2A6.1(a) (1)

16 Specific Offense
17 Characteristics
(Little/No
18 Deliberation) : -4 U.S.S.G. §2A6.1(b) (5)

19 Acceptance of 20 Responsibility : -2 U.S.S.G. §3E1.1

---

21 Total Offense Level : 6

22 The USAO will agree to a downward adjustment for acceptance of 23 responsibility (and, if applicable, move for an additional level 24 under § 3E1.1(b)) only if the conditions set forth in paragraph 25 15) are met. Subject to paragraph 13, defendant and the USAO 26 agree not to seek, argue, or suggest in any way, either orally or 27 in writing, that any other specific offense characteristics,

1 adjustments or departures, from either the applicable Offense 2 Level or Criminal History Category, be imposed. If, however, 3 after signing this agreement but prior to sentencing, defendant 4 were to commit an act, or the USAO were to discover a previously 5 undiscovered act committed by defendant prior to signing this 6 agreement, which act, in the judgment of the USAO, constituted 7 obstruction of justice within the meaning of U.S.S.G. § 3C1.1, 8 the USAO would be free to seek the enhancement set forth in that 9 section. Defendant also understands that defendant's base 10 offense level could be increased if defendant is a career 11 offender under U.S.S.G. §§ 4B1.1 and 4B1.2. In the event that 12 defendant's offense level is so altered, the parties are not 13 bound by the base offense (or adjusted offense) level stipulated 14 to above.

15       12. There is no agreement as to defendant's criminal 16 history or criminal history category.

17       13. The stipulations in this agreement do not bind either 18 the United States Probation Office or the Court. Both defendant 19 and the USAO are free to: (a) supplement the facts by supplying 20 relevant information to the United States Probation Office and 21 the Court, (b) correct any and all factual misstatements relating 22 to the calculation of the sentence, and (c) argue on appeal and 23 collateral review that the Court's sentencing guidelines 24 calculations are not error, although each party agrees to 25 maintain its view that the calculations in paragraph [11] are 26 consistent with the facts of this case.

27

28

DEFENDANT'S OBLIGATIONS

15. Defendant agrees that he or she will:

a) Plead guilty as set forth in this agreement.

b) Not knowingly and willfully fail to abide by all stipulations contained in this agreement.

c) Not knowingly and willfully fail to: (i) appear as or all court appearances, (ii) surrender as ordered for sentence, (iii) obey all conditions of any bond, and any other ongoing court order in this matter.

d) Not commit any crime; however, offenses which would be considered for sentencing purposes under U.S.S.G. § 4A1.2(c) are not within the scope of this agreement.

e) Not knowingly and willfully fail to be truthful at with Pretrial Services, the U.S. Probation Office, and

f) Pay the applicable special assessment at or before sentencing unless defendant lacks the ability to pay.

THE USAO'S OBLIGATIONS

If defendant complies fully with all defendant's ns under this agreement, the USAO agrees:

a) To abide by all sentencing stipulations contained in the agreement.

b) At the time of sentencing, provided that defendant states an acceptance of responsibility for the offense up including the time of sentencing, to recommend a two-level in the applicable sentencing guideline offense level,

1 pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1, and to recommend and, if necessary, 2 move for an additional one-level reduction if available under 3 that section.

4 c) To recommend that defendant be sentenced to a term
5 of Probation provided that the total offense level as calculated 6 by the Court falls within Zone A or B of the sentencing table.

BREACH OF AGREEMENT

8       17. If defendant, at any time between the execution of this 9 agreement and defendant's sentencing on a non-custodial sentence 10 or surrender for service on a custodial sentence, knowingly 11 violates or fails to perform any of defendant's obligations under 12 this agreement ("a breach"), the USAO may declare this agreement 13 breached. If the USAO declares this agreement breached, and the 14 Court finds such a breach to have occurred, defendant will not be 15 able to withdraw defendant's guilty plea, and the USAO will be 16 relieved of all of its obligations under this agreement.

17       18. Following a knowing and willful breach of this 18 agreement by defendant, should the USAO elect to pursue any 19 charge that was either dismissed or not filed as a result of this 20 agreement, then:

21 a) Defendant agrees that any applicable statute of 22 limitations is tolled between the date of defendant's signing of 23 this agreement and the commencement of any such prosecution or 24 action.

25 b) Defendant gives up all defenses based on the statute 26 of limitations, any claim of preindictment delay, or any speedy

1 trial claim with respect to any such prosecution, except to the 2 extent that such defenses existed as of the date of defendant's 3 signing of this agreement.

4                   c) Defendant agrees that: i) any statements made by 5 defendant, under oath, at the guilty plea hearing; ii) the 6 stipulated factual basis statement in this agreement; and iii) 7 any evidence derived from such statements, are admissible against 8 defendant in any future prosecution of defendant, and defendant 9 shall assert no claim under the United States Constitution, any 10 statute, Rule 410 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, Rule 11(f) of 11 the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, or any other federal 12 rule, that the statements or any evidence derived from any 13 statements should be suppressed or are inadmissible.

14                   LIMITED MUTUAL WAIVER OF APPEAL AND COLLATERAL ATTACK

15                   19. Defendant gives up the right to appeal any sentence 16 imposed by the Court, and the manner in which the sentence is 17 determined, provided that (a) the sentence is within the 18 statutory maximum specified above and is constitutional, (b) the 19 Court in determining the applicable guideline range does not 20 depart upward in offense level or criminal history category and 21 determines that the total offense level is 6 or below, and (c) 22 the Court imposes a sentence within or below the range 23 corresponding to the determined total offense level and criminal 24 history category. Defendant also gives up any right to bring a 25 post-conviction collateral attack on the conviction or sentence, 26 except a post-conviction collateral attack based on a claim of

27

28

1 ineffective assistance of counsel, a claim of newly discovered
2 evidence, or an explicitly retroactive change in the applicable 3 Sentencing Guidelines, sentencing statutes, or statutes of 4 conviction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, defendant retains the 5 ability to appeal the court's determination of defendant's 6 criminal history category and the conditions of 7 probation/supervised release imposed by the court, with the 8 exception of the following: standard conditions set forth in 9 district court General Orders 318 and 01-05; the drug testing 10 conditions mandated by 18 U.S.C. §§ 3563(a)(5) and 3583(d); and 11 the alcohol and drug use conditions authorized by 18 U.S.C. § 12 3563(b)(7).

13       20. The USAO gives up its right to appeal the sentence, 14 provided that (a) the Court in determining the applicable 15 guideline range does not depart downward in offense level or 16 criminal history category, (b) the Court determines that the 17 total offense level is 6 or above, and (c) the Court imposes a 18 sentence within or above the range corresponding to the 19 determined total offense level and criminal history category.

COURT NOT A PARTY

21       21. The Court is not a party to this agreement and need not 22 accept any of the USAO's sentencing recommendations or the 23 parties' stipulations. Even if the Court ignores any sentencing 24 recommendation, finds facts or reaches conclusions different from 25 any stipulation, and/or imposes any sentence up to the maximum 26 established by statute, defendant cannot, for that reason.

1 withdraw defendant's guilty plea, and defendant will remain bound 2 to fulfill all defendant's obligations under this agreement. No 3 one - not the prosecutor, defendant's attorney, or the Court - 4 can make a binding prediction or promise regarding the sentence 5 defendant will receive, except that it will be within the 6 statutory maximum.

7 NO ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

8 22. Except as set forth herein, there are no promises, 9 understandings or agreements between the USAO and defendant or 10 defendant's counsel. Nor may any additional agreement, 11 understanding or condition be entered into unless in a writing 12 signed by all parties or on the record in court.
